

YOUTH FORUM 2009

FOR EDUCATORS & COMMUNITY SERVICE
PROVIDERS

JUNE 24, 2009 - 8:30 A.M.— 4:30 P.M.

ANDERSON CIVIC CENTER -
3207 MARTIN LUTHER KING BLVD. ANDERSON, SC

“TRAIN THE TRAINER” SERIES featuring community experts who will provide key insight into effectively interacting with and training school-age youth.

8:45—9:30 A.M. - Jose Garcia, President and CEO of B2E-Mobile Financial Services, will speak on effectively helping students become more competitive in the job market. His lecture, “Optimizing the Relationship between Business and Education,” is designed to provide techniques that will help improve the employability of young people.

9:55—11:10 A.M. - Greg Linke, Director of Program Development for the Youth Learning Institute of Clemson University, will continue the series with his talk titled, “Millennials: Who Are These Kids?” Mr. Linke will provide an overview of the Millennial generations by helping understand their ethic, workplace attitudes and paradoxes and why employers’ efforts to speak their language and manage these demanding rookies is worth the effort.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Ruby Payne, Ph.D. 1:00—4:00 P.M.

Author and professional educator Ruby Payne’s 30 years of experience in education, as well as her extensive research on poverty and the mindset of the economic classes, gives her a unique perspective to share in her workshop.

This seminar gives both the social service provider and the community member key lessons in dealing with individuals from poverty. Topics include increasing awareness of the differences in economic cultures, how those differences affect opportunities for success, developing an action plan to improve services to clients and improving retention rates for new hires from poverty. This seminar is based on Dr. Payne’s book Bridges Out Of Poverty: Strategies for Professionals and Communities.
